August 15, 1931 - December 7, 2024

Adele Bagnasco Born: August 15, 1931 – Detroit, MI Died: December 7, 2024

Adele Bagnasco, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, Godmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on December 7, 2024, at the age of 93. Adele was born in Detroit, Michigan on August 15, 1931, and spent her early years in the Linwood and Puritan area, where she was raised by a loving family that instilled in her a deep sense of compassion and kindness. Adele was an exceptional student, attending Healy Elementary School and later Immaculata High School, where she graduated with honors. She continued her education at the University of Detroit, where fate intervened at a bus stop, and she met her future husband, Angelo Bagnasco.

Adele's career began as a secretary at a prominent Detroit bank, but her life truly blossomed when she married Angelo. Together, they founded a business, and Adele took on the crucial roles of payroll and bookkeeping while raising their four mischievous sons. She was the heart of the family, always providing love, guidance, and unwavering support.

As a devoted wife and mother, Adele managed her household with grace and care. Her faith was a cornerstone of her life, and she was an active participant at both St. Scholastica and St. Mary parishes. Adele's home was known for its delicious homemade Italian dishes, and her world-renowned cheesecake became a family favorite. She often shared recipes, though she had a talent for leaving out one secret ingredient to keep the magic alive.

Adele's love for her family extended beyond the walls of her home. She attended countless Little League games to cheer on her sons and was always prepared with knitted hats, mittens, and scarves for her children, who inevitably lost them. Summers were filled with bike rides, often ending with a treat at Dairy Queen. She also dedicated her time to volunteering with St. Scholastica, Benedictine, and Catholic Central schools, always involved in her children's activities.

Adele was extremely passionate about sending birthday cards and thankyou notes to all of her family and extended family.

After being widowed, Adele continued to live an active life. She worked for Alex Delvecchio Enterprises until the age of 79, and was a cherished member of the Red Hats club in Commerce. Her generosity knew no bounds, as she frequently drove others who were unable to get around and visited the sick, offering her kindness and support. She also volunteered at Huron Valley Hospital and remained deeply involved in her community.

One of Adele's greatest joys was playing Gin Rummy with her sons, where she was known for her strategic skills and frequent victories. But above all, Adele's most memorable trait was her devotion to prayer. She spent much of her life praying the Rosary, asking the Blessed Virgin Mary to protect her children, extended family, and friends.

Loving mother to Gregory (Lori), Jeffery (Terri), Steven and the late Michael Bagnasco. Proud and doting grandmother of David Bagnasco, Michelle (Christopher) Johnson, Anna Bagnasco, Danielle (Craig) Sadowski, Lauren and Brooke Nierman, Rob (Leslie) McIntyre and Danielle (Daniel) Gordon.

Great-grandmother of Ella and Michael Johnson, Madeline and Robbie McIntyre and Charlotte and Nicholas Gordon. Dear older sister to Mary Guidobono, Theresa (Lawrence) Burcz, John Guidobono and the late Charles (Elizabeth) Guidobono and Rita Battaglia. Survived by many nieces, nephews and great nieces, nephews. Also survived by her friends whose lives were touched by her warmth, generosity, and unshakable faith. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

“ Adele was my mother-in-law for many years when I was married to Greg. She was a wonderful grandmother to our three children— Dave, Michelle and Anna. When I was a young mother, Adele came to my rescue many times! She was always someone I could count on to be there for us, which was a Godsend! After Greg and I were no longer married, Adele still was a strong presence in the lives of my children and me; for example, driving out to Milford when I had night classes, to cook dinner and care for the kids after school. I will never forget that she did that, ensuring that the kids were well cared for, so I could focus on my studies. Her kindness was legendary— everyone who knew Adele knew how kind and loving she was, and I'm very grateful to have known her. Rest in peace, Adele. Many thanks for all the love you gave so willingly.

“ Sincere condolences to the Bagnasco and Guidobono families on Adele's passing. I remember when as middle-aged men we borrowed her basement for musical jam sessions (as if we were teenagers), and she warmly welcomed us. She was so kind and gracious! I pray all family members will take solace in knowing that your loss is Heaven's gain. Truly, Pete & Chieko Racine
