“ Mr. and Mrs. Rays were dear friends of my parents, Thomas and Donna. As I grew up, they became my friends too. We, Barbara and I, continued to exchange Christmas cards and occasional emails up until late this year. I remember visits to their house in Dearborn Heights and all of the fascinating objects from their time in Mexico and other travels. I remember fun themed parties they attended given by my parents at our home. I remember laughing at her antics on stage at Beta shows. I remember many visits from Barbara and Ralph to our family cottage on Torch Lake and will be forever grateful for all the help they provided in preparation for my outdoor "destination wedding" there. She also took an active interest in my son, Alexander...sending me links to origami projects she thought he might enjoy and an occasional parenting tip. She was so very kind and thoughtful and will be missed.

“ Dear: Ms. Singley / Rays ... For all the years that separated us since I graduated from George Ford School in Michigan . I have never forgotten your kindness & friendship in English class . I must say that out of my two very favorite teachers you were one of them . And remembering staying after class and having you instruct me and show me the ways of the English language . I remember visiting you when you lived on Mark Twain with your mother , and the long conversations I had with you both on your front porch. And to be honest I had a childhood crush on you because you were different from all the other teachers , and how jealous I was in learning you were getting married . There are very few teachers I remember and those that I do were special and greatly appreciated by this young student at the time . And I am sure where you are now you realize that , and one day we will have those long conversations again . And hope you realize just how special you were in my growing up and mastering the art of English (even tho I'm still not perfect ,and have forgotten some things thru the years) . May the Blessings of our Heavenly Father Bless You and Keep You . With Loving and Happy Memories , Mark L. Johnson , Livingston , Texas .
