“ It is with a deep sense of sadness that we say goodbye to our Dear Friend Kay. Our fun golf league days to our many shopping excursions with the girls in Florida. We made so many wonderful memories through the years from our State Farm days to being Florida neighbors for 15 years. You take a piece of our hearts with you Kay. Rest In Peace Dear Friend💜

“ Lana,Bob and family. We cannot be with you tomorrow but know you all are in our thoughts and prayers. We still cherish and remember our family Christmases. Christmas eve at mom and dads light supper and off to church for our Christmas program' Back to the house while uncles and grandpa and men played cards. Then off to midnight service. Back after service for snacks as men got back to their card game and we exchanged gifts. Christmas day to Uncle Everett and Aunt Pegs for a huge turkey dinner. We filled the basement for dinner. Kay will be missed but she is there with her mom and dad.grandparents, aunt Lillie and cousin John. We all have been blessed with a good family and closeness. Love to all.

“ Kay you will be missed, my favorite best one liner from Kay. (I have done it the first 25 years now it is your turn. I tear up just thinking about her saying it. Actually tears are rolling down my face so much so that I can barely type. I actually used that saying today in life. Kay and her family have been my neighbors for more than 25 years. We have shared many lunches, dinners, coffee and vacations throughout the years. So now that Kays life has changed and gone to heaven so has mine changed. She was my friend and companion and someone I had helped throughout her illness. For I was Kays caregiver for more than 8 years.
Sincere love to all her family Maria MCDevitt
