i just found out today of your passing, I still remember things that you taught me when I was new at the city, You had a way of teaching someone something without being demeaning and i allways respected you for that. You were a kind and caring person.

I am a long lost niece of Uncle Ken's. My mother was his sister Delores, I just discovered his passing and am so sorry to hear. I have a very fond memory of him taking my mother and their sister, my Aunt Shirley and myself and my cousin to find history on their passed family members at White Chapel cemetery, I was pretty young so don't remember much but I do remember what a nice person Ken was, very kind and funny.
My deepest sympathy to my long lost cousins, Deb, Donna, Denise, Diane - Kristine (Sam) Koshorek-Williams
