Michael Todd "Sib" Simney

January 28, 1954 – April 24, 2021

Beloved husband of Fran Simney for 38 years and together for a life time.

Loving father of Kate (Brandon) Getchen and Sean (Erin) Simney.

Proud grandfather of Brady "Big Handsome" Getchen.

Son of Victor and the late Dorothy Simney.

Dear brother of the late Cathy (Bob) and Robin (Marcus).

Michael was the life of the party always down to make people laugh with his good-natured jokes and personality. He loved being in between the pipes but when he wasn't on the ice you could find him at the course playing 18.

Michael was also a published poet as well. Nothing brought him more joy than spending time with his family and considered himself a very lucky man.

Michael will be missed by anyone who had the good fortune of knowing him.

“ Had a few laughs growing up in Rosedale Park, attending Redford High and playing on the baseball team, as well as summer Rec ball. A life well lived, taken too soon. Deepest sympathies to the entire family. Gary Stanbury

“ Remember so many memories, growing up in Rosedale Park, weekends playing golf, vacationing with the family in Cheboygan and just plain old visits. Good times. Stay well Fran and family - thinking of you always! Love, Dale and Linda Hourigan

“ *I have several fond memories of Mike. He was such a gentleman and friend. He always spoke lovingly of his dear wife and his children. He was so proud of all of you. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends as you continue your life's journey without him by your side. He will be missed but will always bring a smile whenever you think of his good nature and sense of humor. Loving hugs,

“Met Mikes wonderful family many years ago when our kids were young over spring break at the Holiday Inn in Livonia. What a wonderful family! We have remained friends ever since. Even turned out our families had condos in Pompano Beach and shared time there. Mike was a great person, friend and dad and truly will be missed. Those memories will never be forgotten.

“ I'll forever remember and be grateful for the fact that you always treated me like part of the family: feeding me, letting me spend the night, having me over for holidays and vacations. Whether it was playing a card game or playing 18 holes, I enjoyed goofin' around with you and listening to the many words of wisdom you had to offer... even if I didn't ask :-P Most importantly, I have always and will continue to admire and be inspired by the way you loved and cared for your family. If I could do anything to honor you, it would be to take care of my family the way you took care of yours (and me). Heaven certainly gained a man with a good heart and soul and I'll miss you. -Lil' Kim-
