“ I was blessed to have a Father in law who was never interfering and would offer his help and support without asking. The best Grandfather to my children, he loved to spent time with them as often as he could. A man who lived by his convictions as a Christian, and would help anyone. A care giver for the last 30 years, he is now being cared for in heaven. I could not have had a better Father in law.

“ Pat Mitchell and Maryann....you were wonderful neighbors...sweet, kind and so giving. Pat would help me with anything I needed and also watch out for me as I lived alone. He brought my trash can up, picked up pinecones in my yard but the best was he was the kindest most caring person. I was so sad to hear of his passing and especially after the funeral...I would have come to give support to a wonderful family. Hugs to all. Terri Moody

“ One of the most influential men I've come to know, Grandpa truly understood what it meant to love others. Revered by all who knew him, he was a mentor and a role model who will be greatly missed. I find solace in knowing I was able to see him one last time. Last weekend we (the seven grandchildren) were all able to meet up for one final picture with him. We love you Grandpa, keep an eye on us from above, and sleep well.

“ Thoughts and prayers to the Mitchell Family. It has been a long time since Lafayette, but I always remember your family across the street as friendly and kind. We had a great street with so many kids and fun. May your memories help you get through this difficult time.

“Uncle Pat... My Role Model”

Let me tell you about the man I fondly know, respect, and love as Uncle Pat. He is soft-spoken, humble, giving, and self-less man. He is a beloved husband, loving father, brother, uncle, and doting grandfather. He is a man of many skills and talents but could easily be overlooked by modern society by people who boast and are full of pride and who draw attention to themselves. This is foreign to him. He does thoughtful deeds quietly, behind the scenes and without seeking credit or acclaim. He does many things because it helps relieve someone's burdens, brings a smile, is his duty, or simply because it's the right thing to do. He is a wonderful listener who thinks before responding but gives sound advice. I enjoy his company, subtle smile and positive outlook. I have watched him and observed his demeanor and actions for many years. He is a man I've tried to emulate as the eldest brother and later as I have become a man, husband, and father.

Most importantly, his love and dedication to the Lord and what He has commanded us to do is most evident. We are to love others as ourselves and be a light to the world. Although quiet and humble, his light has been bright and influences many. He has fought the good fight and is a leader among our family and a role model of what Christian men should aspire to. He is now with the Lord and is hearing, "Well done good and faithful servant." Uncle Pat's imprint and impact have been made and his purpose on earth fulfilled.

I'll miss him now but will meet him again in eternity.

*Your Loving Nephew,
Rob*

“ Dad,

Thank you for being the most wonderful Father a daughter could ask for. You were always patient, loving, kind, and supportive of my sisters and I. You are in heaven now and I am so grateful you are no longer suffering. I love you so much, Dad!!

“ Sharon and I want to express our deepest sympathy for Patrick's passing. We enjoyed his company while doing the Capuchin warehouse ministry and during some Primetimer's trips when we traveled with Patrick and Mary Ann. He even gave me some tips on how to play Euchre when I was first learning to play the card game. Sharon and I will miss him and we will keep Patrick and Mary Ann in our prayers.
