Terry Wellington Osmun

May 17, 1956 – October 10, 2021

Beloved husband of Daphne Smith.

Loving father to Matt (Margie), Tara, Joshua (Whitney), Ryan and Kelly (Hung).

Dear son of the late Arthur, Frances and Dale.

Cherished grandfather of Kyley, Kendall, Brennen, Alexa, Ryder, Owen, Nash and the late Phox.

Sweet brother of Farrel, Linda, Phil, Mer, Robin and the late Roger.

Beside his family Terry loved his Street Glide Harley Davison motorcycle with his custom blue flames. He was a man of many activities loving the outdoors, he had his pontoon boat. Hunting, fishing, gardening and camping he had the best time in nature and its beauty. He took his adoration for the outdoors so far as he developed a plot of land in Grayling Michigan. He had a well put in and eventually building a cabin on the property. He also had a passion to cook for his family; grilling and smoking were his favorite way to feed them. He would get so excited about his food he would ask his family how it tasted before they could even take a bite! He was very active in sports being on leagues for softball, bowling and golf. He enjoyed watching the Lions, even though they lost.

Terry worked for 37 years as a shipping coordinator at Comau-Pico. He at one time or another had some of his children working there to instill a good work ethic.

Terry will be missed by many; he had a big personality and enjoyed life to the fullest.

The family of Terry is requesting that you write down a fond memory of Terry to place in a memory jar when you come to celebrate his life for the speaker to share at his memorial service.
